Pastor Pam's Pondering

I have been pondering this week, about how our church has supported our greater community, with supporting our annual conference. As always it has been long week, with late nights for some of us as leaders. Our building, and our staff has served well and been a blessing to the conference staff and our Bishop.

As I worked over the past two weeks, I have been amazed at the ability of the conference staff to flow, make changes, work together and solve any issue that surfaced. And, doing it with grace, cooperation and a great sense of humor and fun.

It was a wonderful witness of being the hands, feet, voices, minds and willingness to make things the best. It was hard work, but together the tasks were accomplished. I ponder the skill and understanding of our volunteer leaders from the conference. It was a pleasure to serve along side.

I have been pondering how we as a local church can use the same grace, cooperation and sense of humor as we work together. During this month, we have looked at the 5 Love Languages. Everyone has a love language, and I have been pondering how we might use our love languages as way of accomplishing the tasks before us.

It is official, that I have been appointed by the Bishop to serve another year at Des Moines. I am looking forward to our work in the next year.
May love guide our way

Blessings
Pastor Pam
